Most anything will go down our throats, excepting the story about the exclusive batter's five-dollar hat being better than ours at two fifty, because his name is inside.

If we could put old heads on young shoulders, there'd be but one store in town selling clothes for little fellows. It takes an old head to know what's best—in clothes. Today's offerings are a study in economics

The steamer Mikahala came in this morning with 5129 bags of sugar for Schaefer & Co, Irwin & Co and Hackfeld & Co, from leeward Kauai plantation.

The Oceanic liner Alameda got away about ten o'clock this morning with a good sized passenger list for the coast. The Alameda broke the record between Auckland and this port on her trip up but hardly expects to do it from here to the Golden Gate.

The steamer James Makee arrives this morning with a load of sugar which with one more load will clean up Kealia's output for this season. 9138 tons is the total amount of sugar made at this plantation this year. The Makee leaves thence this afternoon.

The Seattle Post Intelligencer reports that on the ways at Charles Hennegar's shipyard at Ballard, Wash., the frame work of a twin propeller freight boat is about finished. The new boat is for Captain John Collins, of La Conner, and will be ready for commission by September. The dimensions are: Length, 100 ft; beam, 24 ft; hold, 7 ft. It will cost when completed about $5000. It is not yet decided whether the machinery will be wholly or partly new, but it will be first-class, and will be made in Seattle. All the machinery will be placed in position while the boat is on the stocks at Ballard. Captain Collins intends to use the boat for freighting on the Sound.

BY POLICE AT CALLAO.

Inquiry here confirms the story coming from Lima to the effect that the State Department has lodged a demand with the United States charge of legation at Lima for the release of the mate of the American bark "Uncle John." He was ashore on December 19 last at Callao, and was arrested because of his constant demand for "Raidier Beer." On tap or in bottles at the Criterion Saloon.
